MEMORANDUM FOR: Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs

On June 23, 1969, you asked for a special and revised contingency plan involving military action against North Korea. The stated objective of the plan would be to retaliate against future North Korean provocations, while minimizing certain military and political risks previously cited by the Joint Chiefs of Staff (JCS).

Attached are the following: (See file - NOT ATTACHED)

- ~~TS 3440~~ { A memorandum from General Wheeler to me (JCSM-421-69) on the subject of Military Reaction Options for Korea
- ~~TS 3440~~ { An appendix to JCSM-421-69 (which is a draft memorandum to you), which repeats the substance of General Wheeler's covering memorandum
- Annex A to JCSM-421-69, which is the requested contingency plan.
- ~~TS 3443~~ { My June 24, 1969, memorandum to the Chairman, Joint Chiefs of Staff, raising certain issues for JCS consideration
- ~~TS 3446~~ { Colonel Haig's June 23, 1969, memorandum to Colonel Pursley, outlining the contingency plan request

As you will note in General Wheeler's July 9 memorandum to me, a number of difficult issues are posed in contemplating any military actions of the type requested in the attached contingency plan. I believe we should consider seriously the JCS reservations which are cited.
