A GUIDE TO VISUAL IMAGES OF WASHINGTON, D.C.

This guide is designed to assist researchers in locating photographs of Washington, D.C. that have been used to illustrate books, and therefore “hidden” from conventional searching methods. In addition to this list of books, the general Graphics Collection can be searched on-line by subject or keyword. Other good sources include the Charles Kelly, Nathaniel Moone, and Smeallie-Smith photograph collections, as well as the Historic American Buildings Survey (HABS) collection. Finding aids to these are available in the reading room.
