- Essays: Applicants to the Global M.B.A. program must submit the four essays described below within the same document, using a separate page for each essay. Essays must be typed and double-spaced. Throughout the essays, note the personal qualities and professional accomplishments that may distinguish you from other qualified applicants.
1. Discuss your long-term and short-term professional objectives and how your past experiences have contributed to and defined these objectives. Include in your statement why you want to pursue a graduate business degree at this point in time. You may also include your related qualifications, including collegiate, professional, and community activities, and any other substantial accomplishments not already mentioned in the application. You may explain any academic inconsistencies as part of this statement or as an addendum. (Limit to 500 words.)
 2. As a manager, you are likely to work with a team in order to accomplish a particular task, and teamwork is the cornerstone of the Global M.B.A. program. Describe what your role would be within a group setting and describe the qualities and characteristics of your ideal teammates. (Limit to one page, 250 words.)
 3. Describe your “perfect” post-M.B.A. job. (Limit to one page, 250 words.)
 4. Discuss a person, event, or experience that has significantly shaped your life and explain why. (Limit to 500 words.)
- Additional requirements: A resumé and employment profile are required. Interviews, either in-person or by phone, are required and by invitation only.
