

“Dorm-Storming” Regulations
Student Elections 2007
GW Housing Programs and the Residence Hall Associations

1. All candidates and affiliated individuals must comply with previously established GW Housing Programs rules and regulations.
2. Each candidate may designate one other proxy to dorm-storm with. Any candidate found dorm storming with more than one other non-designated person will be in violation of regulations.
3. A candidate may dorm-storm without his or her proxy, and vice versa. The candidate and proxy may also split up to cover different halls.
4. The following dates and time outline the dates allowed for in-dorm campaigning. If candidates, or proxies, are found campaigning outside of these times, it will be considered a violation of GWHP, JEC, and RHA guidelines.
 - Saturday, February 17: 2:00 – 6:00 p.m.
 - Sunday, February 18: 7:00 – 11:00 p.m.
 - Monday, February 19: 7:00 – 11:00 p.m.
 - Tuesday, February 20: 7:00 – 11:00 p.m.
5. The aforementioned dates are not hall-specific; candidates are free to campaign in halls of their choosing in the allotted time, and can visit as many halls as possible in the allotted times.
6. Candidates or proxies intending to distribute campaign literature or items of any sort (e.g. posters, fliers, palm cards) in the residence halls must have already been submitted to the JEC.
7. Literature can only be distributed to students on a direct basis – i.e. any items must be handed to the students. Items cannot be slipped under doors, left in stairwells, etc.

8. For UPD and GW Housing Programs purposes, all candidates must register in advance with the RHA Point of Contact. In the case of slates or joint campaigns, one person from the campaign (an actual candidate is not required) can email all the names of candidates and his or her proxies to the Point of Contact. The following information MUST be provided:
 - Last Names
 - First Name
 - GWid
 - Slate/Student Organization
 - Whether the person is the candidate or a proxy
 - Email Address
9. For UPD purposes, candidates will have to designate in the email which nights they intend to dorm-storm. If one intends on signing up for all nights, please designated by indicated ALL NIGHTS.
10. As aforementioned, the person emailing must indicate all the same fields of information for BOTH the candidate and the proxy. Each candidate may only have one proxy. If a candidate intends to change his or her proxy on a specific night, this information must be included.
11. Contact information for RHA Point of Contact:
 - Hayley Haldeman
 - RHA President
 - hayleyha@gwu.edu
12. All individuals requesting dorm-storming rights must register with the RHA Point of Contact by MONDAY, FEBRUARY 12, BY 5 P.M.
13. All names submitted to the RHA Point of Contact will be submitted to GW Housing Programs and UPD. While dorm-storming, candidates and proxies must clearly identify themselves. This can be done with either badges or masking tape similar to postering protocol. Identification must include the person's name, slate (if applicable), and whether they are candidate or proxy.
14. All candidates and affiliated individuals must wear his or her badge at all times, and carry his or her GWorld during dorm-storming.
