M.A. Awarded by: _____

As you consider graduate study at The George Washington University, we are interested in learning who you consider the most likely advisor for your doctoral dissertation. We realize that not everyone has a precise idea of his or her prospective advisor or concentration. It would help us, however, if you indicate your current preferences. Please return this form to the Graduate Admissions Chair, Department of History, George Washington University, Washington, DC 20052; or you can fax it to (202) 994-6231, or e-mail it as an attachment to history@gwu.edu.

I. Planned Field of Concentration _____

(e.g. "20th Century U.S. Diplomatic History," "Civil War era American politics," Tudor-Stuart England," "The Cold War in Europe")

II. The department also offers graduate fellowships with The Eleanor Roosevelt Papers, a documentary history of the material Roosevelt received and generated on the subject of human rights. The award involves three years working as a researcher and editor at the E.R. Papers and one as a teaching assistant. Would you like to be considered for this award? _____ Yes _____ No
