2.	Your point is well taken. I thought [ ] plan was for Calero to meet group [] at [] Peter Collins made that impossible. Congressional group insisted on meeting exiles anyway. With Collins covering our every move, only choice turned out to be relative privacy of the residence. It was in our judgment at the time the least bad of several unpleasant alternatives. I obviously share your perspective on general question of seeing exiles or would not have spent eighteen months deliberately declining to see them [] This was a case of force majeure.
