

The George Washington University Department of Religion Presents
A Lecture Supported by the David and Sherry Berz Fund for Religious Studies:

“Sufism and Globalization: Methodological Reflections on a Changing Field of Study”

Carl W. Ernst

William R. Kenan, Jr., Distinguished Professor of Religious Studies at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

(Whirling Dervishes performing under portrait of Mustafa Kemal Atatürk, who abolished Sufi orders in Turkey in 1925)

April 12, 2007 at 5:00 pm
in the GWU Visitor Center

Refreshments to follow

For more information contact the Department of Religion: 994-6325