

SCT Banner Student System – Quick Reference

Flow diagram

This diagram highlights the Student process from a student and administration perspective.

Continued on the next page

SCT Banner Student System – Quick Reference, Continued

SCT Banner Student modules

This table identifies contains a brief description of each module that can be accessed from the SCT Banner Student main menu.

Module	Purpose
Course Catalog	Create both basic and detailed course information.
Class Schedule	Maintain information about your institution's schedule of classes by term.
General Person	Establish IDs, biographic, and demographic data for a person.
Faculty Load	Establish and maintain information about faculty and advisors.
Location Management and Housing	Create and maintain information about buildings and rooms at an institution, including both classrooms and dorms.
Recruitment	Enter information about prospects who inquire about your institution.
Admissions	Enter information about applicants to the institution.
General Student	Maintain information about students at your institution such as cohort and attribute, disability, and academic classification.
Registration	Enroll students in class sections, as well as other enrollment-related tasks such as grade entry and class roster querying.
Accounts Receivable	Maintain charge and payment information for individual accounts.
Academic History	Maintain information such as grades, degree information, transfer work, student academic standing; set up academic history rules and generate student transcripts.
Curriculum, Advising and Program Planning	Define and utilize program requirements for students to complete at or by your institution.
Student System Management	Perform tape load processing and rule creation, and search the system for persons and non-persons.
Student Administration	Access validation forms needed for Student System set up and Accounts Receivable set up.
Information Access	Maintain information used in telephone registration processing and electronic admissions processing via the Web.