THE RISE OF INDIGENOUS MOVEMENTS IN BOLIVIA AND ECUADOR AND THE POLITICAL STRUGGLES FOR CITIZENSHIP

A PANEL DISCUSSION PRESENTED BY

ANDEAN SEMINAR SERIES

January 23, 2006

SPEAKERS:

Kevin Healy a GW Adjunct Faculty and author of ‘Llamas, Weavings and Organic Chocolate: Multicultural Grassroots Development from the Andes and Amazon’, was the discussant. He is the author of two books on development in Bolivia and of many book chapters in edited volumes, covering topics such as the drug industry in the Andes, indigenous movements, and participatory development, among others.