Elisa Carrió is a member of the national parliament, representing Buenos Aires, and is Director of the Hannah Arendt Institute of cultural and political training, founded in May of 2004. She is the founder “Afirmación para una República de Iguales” (ARI) and was a presidential candidate in 2003. She received a law degree from the Universidad Nacional del Nordeste in 1978 and studied at the Universidad Nacional del Litoral for her Doctoral degree (all but dissertation) in Public Rights. The focus of her work is “the construction of a Republic, which cannot be thought of without democracy, and of a democracy that is not possible without justice or truth.”

Elisa Carrió is a member of the national parliament, representing Buenos Aires, and is Director of the Hannah Arendt Institute of cultural and political training, founded in May of 2004. She is the founder “Afirmación para una República de Iguales” (ARI) and was a presidential candidate in 2003. She received a law degree from the Universidad Nacional del Nordeste in 1978 and studied at the Universidad Nacional del Litoral for her Doctoral degree (all but dissertation) in Public Rights. The focus of her work is “the construction of a Republic, which cannot be thought of without democracy, and of a democracy that is not possible without justice or truth.”

TO REGISTER FOR THIS EVENT:
This program is free and open to the public. However, registration is required. To register, please send the information indicated below by e-mail to rsvpclai@gwu.edu, or fax it to (202) 994-5225. Please specify that you are registering for the Elisa Carrió event.

Name: ___________________________ Organization: ___________________________

Telephone: __________ Fax: __________ E-mail: ____________________________