The George Washington University
2006 Holiday Celebration
Door Decorating Contest

Registration Form
Registration Deadline: December 8
Judging Dates: December 12, 13 and 14

As a special event, the Holiday Committee invites departments and organizational units of all types to enter a Door Decorating Contest. A committee representing many parts of the University will vote on its favorite doors and award ribbons to the best and most creative doors. The University will photograph all decorated doors and show them at the grand Holiday Party, where the winning departments will be recognized.
