Monday, April 15th
“The Politics and Culture of Contemporary France”
2:30–4:00 p.m.
Teamsters Labor History Research Center,
Room 702 • Gelman Library
A Roundtable Discussion with Professors Pierre Birnbaum (University of Paris), Herrick Chapman (NYU), Kathryn Kleppinger (GW) and Kimberly Morgan (GW).

“Sur la table: Food, Identity and the Jews in Modern France”*
7:15 p.m.
La Maison Française - French Embassy
The Frieda Kobernick Fleischman Lecture in Judaic Studies by Professor Pierre Birnbaum, followed by a dessert reception.

Tuesday, April 16th
“Sourced: The Archival Perspective”
2:30–4:00 p.m.
Kiev Collection, Room 710 • Gelman Library
A Workshop with Professors Pierre Birnbaum (University of Paris) and Lisa Leff (AU), which explores in depth many of the sources that Professor Birnbaum drew upon in his Monday evening lecture.

*Please note that registration is required for Professor Birnbaum’s public presentation at La Maison Française. To register, visit: go.gwu.edu/surlatable

Professor Birnbaum’s campus residency is made possible through the generous support of GW’s Urban Food Task Force.

The Frieda Kobernick Fleischman Lecture in Judaic Studies, held this year at La Maison Française, is sponsored, in part, by the French Embassy’s Office of Higher Education.