3. Suazo said he remained convinced that Nicaragua will go to any lengths to bring about a United Nations presence on Nicaraguan/Honduran border. He said Nicaraguans were not above launching raids into Honduras in response to a fictitious Honduran "invasion" so as to gain support for UN peacekeeping role here. Suazo said, as he has rather emphatically on a number of occasions previously, that he has issued firm instructions to the Armed Forces to retaliate as swiftly and decisively as possible in the event of any conventional Nicaraguan attack.
